BOSTON, JULY 18.

Following is a Copy of a letter wrote by the honourable boſe of repreſentatives of this province, in the laſt ſeſſion the general aſſembly, and ſince tranſmitted to the right ourable the Earl of Hillſborough, occaſioned by his rdſhip's letter of the 22*d of* April laſt, to his Excellency vernor Bernard, extracts of which were laid before the oſe, and have ſince been publiſhed in this paper.

ince of the MASSACHUSETTS-BAY, June 30, 1768.

My LORD,

THIS Excellency the Governor of this province has been pleaſed to communicate to the houſe of repreſentatives, extracts of a letter he had received from your Lordſhip, dated Whitehall, April 22, 1768; wherein it is declared to be the Royal pleaſure, that he ſhould require em, in his Majeſty's name, to reſcind the reſolution, gave birth to a circular letter, from the Speaker of ſt houſe, and to declare their diſapprobation of, and to, that raſh and haſty proceeding.

e houſe are humbly of opinion, that a requiſition from rone of this nature, to a Britiſh houſe of commons, en very unuſual: Perhaps there has been no ſuch pre- ſince the revolution: If this be the caſe, ſome very ated repreſentations of this meaſure muſt have been to his Majeſty, to induce him to require of this houſe, ſcind a reſolution of a former houſe, upon pain of ting their exiſtence: For, my Lord, the houſe of ntatives, duly elected, are conſtituted by the Royal r, the repreſentative body of his Majeſty's faithful ons of this province, in the general aſſembly.——

Lordſhip is pleaſed to ſay, that his Majeſty conſiders lep "as evidently tending to create unwarrantable inations, and to excite an unjuſtifiable oppoſition to the tutional authority of parliament:" The houſe therefore ht it their indiſpenſible duty, immediately to reviſe tter referred to; and carefully to recollect, as far as were able, the ſentiments which prevailed in that houſe, luce them to revert to, and reſolve on the meaſure.

may be neceſſary to obſerve, that the people in this ace have attended with a deep concern, to the ſeveral of the Britiſh parliament, which impoſe duties and taxes e colonies; not for the purpoſe of regulating the trade, with the ſole intention of raiſing a revenue. This con- my Lord, ſo far from being limited within the circle few inconſiderate perſons, is become univerſal: The reſpectable for fortune, rank and ſtation, as well as ty and underſtanding, in the province, with very few ations, are alarmed with apprehenſions of the fatal quences of a power, exerciſed in any one part of the h empire, to command and apply the property of their v ſubjects at diſcretion! This conſideration prevailed on aſt houſe of repreſentatives, to reſolve on a humble, bl and loyal petition to the King, the common head father of all his people, for his gracious interpoſition, vour of his ſubjects of this province.——If your Lord- whom his Majeſty has honoured with the American rtment, has been inſtrumental in preſenting a petition, tereſting to the well being of his loyal ſubjects here, houſe beg leave to make their moſt grateful acknowledge- s, and to implore your continued aid and patronage.

all his Majeſty's North American ſubjects are alike ted by theſe parliamentary revenue acts, the former e very juſtly ſuppoſed, that each of the aſſemblies on ontinent, would take ſuch methods of obtaining redreſs, ould be thought by them reſpectively to be regular and er: And being deſirous, that the ſeveral applications ld harmonize with each other, they reſolved on their cir- letter; wherein their only view ſeems to be, to adver- their ſiſter colonies of the meaſures they had taken upon mon and important concern, without once calling upon to adopt thoſe meaſures, or any other.

our Lordſhip, ſurely, will not think it a crime in that e, to have taken a ſtep, which was perfectly conſiſtent with conſtitution; and had a natural tendency to compoſe minds of his Majeſty's ſubjects of this and his other nies, until in his royal clemency he ſhould afford them ef; at a time, when it ſeemed to be the evident deſign of rty, to prevent calm, deliberate, rational and conſtitu- al meaſures from being purſued; or to ſtop the diſtreſſes he people from reaching his Majeſty's ear, and conſe- ntly to precipitate them into a ſtate of deſperation, and ancholy extremity! Thus, my Lord, it appears to this ſe: And your Lordſhip will impartially judge, whether preſentation of it to his Majeſty as a meaſure "of an ammatory nature,"——as a ſtep evidently tending "to ate unwarrantable combinations," and, "to excite an uſtifiable oppoſition to the conſtitutional authority of the liament," be not injurious to the repreſentatives of this ple, and an affront to his Majeſty himſelf.

An attempt, my Lord, to impreſs the royal mind with a louſy of his faithful ſubjects, for which there are no juſt unds, is a crime of the moſt malignant nature; as it ds to diſturb and deſtroy that mutual confidence between the Prince and the ſubjects, which is the only true baſis of ublic happineſs and ſecurity: Your Lordſhip, upon inquiry, y find that ſuch baſe and wicked attempts have been de.

It is an inexpreſſible grief to the people of this province, find repeated cenſures falling upon them, not from miniſters of ſtate alone, but from Majeſty itſelf! grounded on letters and accuſations from the Governor, a ſight of which, though repeatedly requeſted of his Excellency, is refuſed.——There is no evil of this life which they ſo ſenſibly feel, as the diſpleaſure of their Sovereign: It is a puniſhment, which they are aſſured his Majeſty would never inflict, but upon a repreſentation of the juſtice of it from his ſervants, whom he confides in.——Your Lordſhip will allow the houſe to appeal to your own candor, upon the grievous hardſhip of their being made to ſuffer ſo ſevere a misfortune, without ever being called to anſwer for themſelves, or even made acquainted with the matters of charge alledged againſt them: A right, which by the common rules of ſociety, founded in the eternal laws of reaſon and equity, they are juſtly intitled to. The houſe is not willing to treſpaſs upon your patience: They could recite numbers of inſtances, ſince Governor Bernard has been honoured by his Majeſty to preſide over this province, of their ſuffering the King's diſpleaſure, through the inſtrumentality of the Governor, intimated by the Secretary of State, without the leaſt previous notice, that they had ever deviated from the path of their duty. This, they humbly conceive, is juſt matter of complaint, and it may ſerve to convince your Lordſhip, that his Excellency has not that tender feeling for his Majeſty's ſubjects, which is characteriſtick of a good Governor, and of which the Sovereign affords an illuſtrious example.

It is the good fortune of the houſe to be able to ſhow, that the meaſure of the laſt houſe, referred to in your Lordſhip's letter to the Governor, has been groſly miſrepreſented, in all its circumſtances: And it is matter of aſtoniſhment, that a tranſaction of the houſe, the buſineſs of which is conſtantly done in the open view of the world, could be thus coloured; a tranſaction, which by ſpecial order of the houſe was laid before his Excellency, whoſe duty to his Majeſty is, at leaſt, not to miſinform him.

His Excellency could not but acknowledge, in juſtice to that houſe, that moderation took place in the beginning of the ſeſſion: This is a truth, my Lord: It was a principle with the houſe, to conduct the affairs of government in their department, ſo as to avoid the leaſt occaſion of offence: As an inſtance of their pacific diſpoſition, they granted a further eſtabliſhment, for one of his Majeſty's garriſons in the province, rather to gratify his Excellency, who had requeſted it, than from a full conviction of its neceſſity.—— But your Lordſhip is informed, that this moderation "did not continue;" and that "inſtead of a ſpirit of prudence and reſpect to the conſtitution, which ſeemed at that time to influence the conduct of a large majority of the members, a thin houſe, at the end of the ſeſſion, preſumed to revert to, and reſolve on a meaſure of an inflammatory nature;"—— that it was an "unfair proceeding,"——"contrary to the real ſenſe of the houſe"—and "procured by ſurprize."—— My Lord, the journals and minutes of the houſe will prove the contrary of all this: And to convince your Lordſhip, the houſe beg leave to lay before you the ſeveral reſolutions relating to theſe matters, as they ſtand recorded.

The houſe having finiſhed their petition to the King, and their letters to divers of his Majeſty's miniſters, a motion was regularly made, on the 21ſt of January, which was the middle of the ſeſſion, and a reſolution was then taken, to appoint a time to conſider the expediency of writing to the aſſemblies of the other colonies on this continent, with reſpect to the importance of their joining with them in petitioning his Majeſty at this time. Accordingly, on the day aſſigned, there being eighty two members preſent, a number always allowed to be ſufficient to make a full houſe, the queſtion was debated; in conſequence of which, a motion took place, that letters be wrote to the ſeveral aſſemblies of the provinces and colonies on the continent, acquainting them, that the houſe had taken into conſideration the difficulties to which they are, and muſt be reduced, by the operation of the late acts of parliament, for levying duties and taxes on the colonies; and have reſolved on a humble, dutiful and loyal petition to his Majeſty for redreſs, and alſo upon proper repreſentations to his Majeſty's miniſters on the ſubject: And to deſire that they would ſeverally take ſuch conſtitutional meaſures thereupon, as they ſhould judge moſt proper; and the queſtion, upon the motion, paſſed in the negative.——On Thurſday, the 4th of February, it was moved in the houſe, that the foregoing queſtion be reconſidered, ſo far as to leave it at large; and conformable to a ſtanding rule of the houſe, that no vote or order ſhall be reconſidered at any time, unleſs the houſe be as full, as when ſuch vote or order was paſſed; the number in the houſe was called for, and it appearing that eighty two members were preſent*, the queſtion was put, and paſſed in the affirmative, by a large majority; and by an immediately ſubſequent reſolve, the firſt vote was ordered to be eraſed. ——The ſame day, the reſolution which gave birth to the circular letter took place; a queſtion being regular moved, and fairly debated, whether the houſe would appoint a committee to prepare a letter to be ſent to each of the houſes of repreſentatives and burgeſſes on the continent, to inform them of the meaſures which this houſe has taken, with regard to the difficulties ariſing from the acts of parliament for levying duties and taxes on the American colonies, and report to the houſe, which paſſed in the affirmative; and a committee was appointed accordingly: This committee, after deliberation a week, reported the letter, which was read in the houſe, and accepted almoſt unanimouſly; and fair copies of the ſame were ordered to be taken for the ſpeaker to ſign and forward as ſoon as might be: And this day there were eighty three members in the houſe.

The day following an order paſſed, that a fair copy of the letter be tranſmitted to Dennis De Berdt, Eſq; in London. The deſign of which was, that he might be able to produce it, as neceſſity might require, to prevent any miſrepreſentation of its true ſpirit and deſign.

On Saturday the 23th of February, in order that no poſſible occaſion might be taken by the Governor, to think that the debates and reſolutions were deſigned to be kept a ſecret from his Excellency, the houſe came into the following reſolution, viz. Whereas this houſe hath directed, that a letter be ſent to the ſeveral houſes of repreſentatives and burgeſſes of the Britiſh colonies on the continent, ſetting forth the ſentiments of the houſe, with regard to the great difficulties that muſt accrue by the operation of divers acts of parliament, for levying duties and taxes on the colonies, with the ſole and expreſs purpoſe of raiſing a revenue; and their proceedings thereon, in a humble, dutiful and loyal petition to the King, and ſuch repreſentations to his Majeſty's miniſters, as they apprehend may have a tendency to obtain redreſs: And whereas it is the opinion of this houſe, that all effectual methods ſhould be taken, to cultivate an harmony between the ſeveral branches of this government, as being neceſſary to promote the proſperity of his Majeſty's government in this province: Reſolved, that a committee wait on his Excellency the Governor, and acquaint him, that a copy of the letter aforeſaid, will be laid before him as ſoon as it can be drafted; as well as of all the proceedings of this houſe relative to the ſaid affair, if he ſhall deſire it. And a committee was appointed, who waited on his Excellency accordingly.——On Monday following, the houſe reſolved on the eſtabliſhment already mentioned, which is obſerved only to ſhew your Lordſhip, that there was at this time no diſpoſition in the houſe, "to revive unhappy diviſions and diſtractions, ſo prejudicial to the true intereſt of Great-Britain and the colonies."

The houſe beg leave to apologize to your Lordſhip, for the trouble given you, in ſo particular a narration of facts; which they thought neceſſary to ſatisfy your Lordſhip,—— that the reſolution of the laſt houſe, referred to by your Lordſhip, was not an unfair proceeding procured by ſurprize in a thin houſe, as his Majeſty has been informed; but the declared ſenſe of a large majority, when the houſe was full: That the Governor of the province was made fully acquainted with the meaſure, and never ſignified his diſapprobation of it to the houſe, which it is preſumed he would have done, in duty to his Majeſty, if he had thought that it was of evil tendency: And that therefore that houſe had abundant reaſon to be confirmed in their own opinion of the meaſure, as being the production of moderation and prudence. And the houſe humbly rely on the royal clemency, that to petition his Majeſty, will not be deemed by him to be inconſiſtent with a reſpect to the Britiſh conſtitution, as ſettled at the revolution by William the Third: That to acquaint their fellow ſubjects, involved in the ſame diſtreſs, of their having ſo done, in full hopes of ſucceſs, even if they had invited the union of all America in one joint ſupplication, would not be diſcountenanced by our moſt gracious Sovereign, as a meaſure of an inflammatory nature; that when your Lordſhip ſhall in juſtice lay a true ſtate of theſe matters before his Majeſty, he will no longer conſider them as tending to create unwarrantable combinations, or excite an unjuſtifiable oppoſition to the conſtitutional authority of parliament: That he will then clearly diſcern who are of that deſperate faction, which is continually diſturbing the public tranquility, and, that while his arm is extended, for the protection of his diſtreſſed and injured ſubjects, he will frown upon all thoſe, who, to gratify their own paſſions, have dared even to attempt to deceive him!

The houſe of repreſentatives of this province, have more than once, during the adminiſtration of Governor Bernard, been under a neceſſity of intreating his Majeſty's miniſters to ſuſpend their further judgment, upon ſuch repreſentations of the temper of the people, and the conduct of the aſſembly, as they were able to make appear to be injurious: The ſame indulgence this houſe now beg of your Lordſhip: And beſeech your Lordſhip to patronize them ſo far as to make a favourable repreſentation of their conduct to the King, our Sovereign: It being the higheſt ambition of this houſe, and the people whom they repreſent, to ſtand before his Majeſty in their juſt character of affectionate and loyal ſubjects. Signed by the Speaker.

Lord H—lſb——h upon his firſt entering upon the American Department, has given ſuch ſubſtantial proofs not only of his great affection towards us, but of his ſuperior abilities as a ſtateſman, as muſt lead Americans to repoſe the greateſt confidence in him, and to forecaſt the happieſt conſequences from his adminiſtration.—His circular letter to the governors of the other provinces, is a ſtriking ſpecimen of Britiſh policy, and will no doubt ſerve to convince the ſeveral colonies, of the great impropriety of uniting among themſelves to obtain a redreſs of grievances the moſt intolerable, and of the wiſdom of one colony treating another with contempt, in order to recommend themſelves to miniſterial mercy and indulgences——His letters to Governor B——d, requiring him to demand of the aſſembly of the Maſſachuſetts, their reſcinding the reſolution of a former houſe, or what amounts to the ſame thing, an immediate ſurrendering up the invaluable rights and privileges of their conſtituents, is wrote with an air and manner becoming the dignity of a Secretary of State, and muſt manifeſt to the world the extent of his abilities, the purity of his intentions, and the moderation of his views. There is one thing, how-

* The ſame number as before. It is to be obſerved, that the houſe at that time conſiſted of about 110 members. By the royal charter 40 makes a quorum; hence it appears, that 82 members are more than double the number ſufficient legally to tranſact buſineſs, and were then three quarters of the whole houſe.

Fear, which gives us too ſerious apprehenſions, and that is, to perceive any part of adminiſtration giving ſo ready and full credit to what is reported to them concerning the diſpoſitions and conduct of the people reſpecting the new regulations, by thoſe who firſt projected them, and whoſe ſalaries, penſions and expectations, are wholly founded upon the eſtabliſhment of an American revenue—Governor B——d's miſrepreſentations on this head are as numerous, as the conſequences are like to be injurious and diſtreſsful——Our humble and dutiful repreſentations and petitions are not like to reach the royal hand; our legiſlature has been diſſolved, without allowing them time to go through the moſt important buſineſs, even that of a taxation, and no aſſembly of the people, we are told upon the moſt urgent neceſſity, can now be called in the old conſtitutional way, but muſt, if done at all, be ſummoned by a new power in a new way: Things are now tending faſter than we could have wiſhed to a moſt important criſis——Thoſe whoſe private views and evil machinations have thus precipitated affairs, muſt anſwer for the great event.

This Province not having been favoured with a Station Ship during the laſt War, were at a prodigious Expence to build and maintain ſhips to protect their own Coaſt.——We now behold five parading in our Harbour——and what is very diverting, hovering round Caſtle-William, as if there was the greateſt Danger of its being attacked at a Time of profound Peace.

BOSTON, JULY 21.

THE reigning Toaſt in this Province is the Maſſachuſetts Ninety-two, and we hope it will ſoon be ſo throughout the Continent, as alſo throughout Europe.

Our Brethren in the other Colonies may be aſſured, notwithſtanding any Reports to the contrary, that the Importation of Britiſh Goods this Spring has been leſs than in former Years, and that the Sale of thoſe Articles has fell vaſtly ſhort even of laſt Year's——Happy Effects of our growing Induſtry and Frugality: It is however but juſt to acknowledge, that the prodigious Scarcity of Money, occaſioned by the late Duty, has greatly contributed to thoſe Effects——what muſt we think of the Policy, which thus impoveriſhes Provinces to maintain Swarms of uſeleſs Officers in Luxury and Extravagance—— May Britain think of it before it be too late.

The Inhabitants of Marblehead have voted their Thanks to the Ninety-two Members who voted againſt Reſcinding. And the Town of Salem intends to follow their Example.

Laſt Wedneſday came into this Harbour, his Majeſty's armed Schooners Hope, and Little Romney.

On Friday laſt arrived here his Majeſty's Ship of War the Senegal, Captain Cookſon, and the St. Lawrence armed Cutter from Halifax.

We hear from Portſmouth, that laſt Thurſday, a Petition, ſigned by a large Number of the reſpectable Inhabitants of that Town, was preſented to the Seleetmen, requeſting them immediately to call a public Town-meeting, in order to give their Repreſentatives Inſtructions in the preſent alarming and critical Time:——In Conſequence of which, a Meeting was appointed to be held there the Monday following.

It is ſaid that one of the ſeventeen Slaves applied, very earneſtly, to a Number of Coaſters, bound to the Southward, for a Paſſage to Martha's Vineyard; but upon their enquiring who he was, and finding him to be a Slave, they refuſed him a Paſſage. This obliged him to conceal himſelf on board an Oyſterman, by which means he got a Paſſage to the Cape; where he very fortunately came acroſs a kind, good natured old Squaw, belonging to the Vineyard, and homeward bound, who was very glad to ſee her Countryman, and hearing him lament his abject Condition, ſhe was moved with Pity, and generouſly received him into her Canoe, and gave him a Paſſage with her over to the Iſland.

The laborious endeavours of Penſioners and Seekers ſince the project of laying duties in America for the expreſs purpoſe of a revenue was adopted, has been to hide the true ſtate of things, and poſſeſs adminiſtration with a belief that ſuch meaſures were not diſagreeable to the body and better ſort of the people——That the oppoſition made thereto, is only the oppoſition of a little factious expiring party, which cannot ſtand before the exertions of power; this accounts for the pains taken by a certain G——r and others, to prevent our Petitions and Remonſtrances from being preſented, as alſo for the invitation of MEN of WAR, TROOPS, &c. the carrying off veſſels in a hoſtile manner, the firing at others, and even boats, to douſe ſails, and colours, &c. the ſearching of veſſels, ſtopping others and taking out the cargo on the man of war's deck, impreſſing and impriſoning his Majeſty's ſubjects, and threatning to blow the brains out of ſuch as attempted to put their heads above the hatches, intimations and threats of firing broadſides into the town, and a moſt extraordinary letter to the G——r, handed the C——l before the late diſturbances, in which a Captain is ſaid to expreſs his hopes, that he may not be provoked to make uſe of the power in his hands to treat the inhabitants worſe than he would chuſe to uſe barbarians;——but this extraordinary behaviour of the Captain's is now forgot or forgiven by the people, as they have had it reported to them, that he is entirely under the directions of the Board of Cuſtoms, who applied for his being ſent here. ——It is now to be hoped that the ſurpriſing unanimity of this town, the province and other colonies, with their ſeveral Aſſemblies, will ſerve to convince the whole nation, how much they have been impoſed upon by the accounts of intereſted and deſigning men, who have projected and recommended meaſures, which are not only diſguſtful and diſtreſſing, but if adhered to and purſued, may in the end prove fatal to Britiſh as well as American liberty.——

JULY 25. We hear from Salem, that a Meeting of the Inhabitants of that Town was held there on Monday laſt, when, it is ſaid, they paſſed Votes of the following import.—1ſt, That the Town of Salem approves of the Proceedings of the late Houſe of Repreſentatives in not reſcinding.—And 2d, That the Thanks of the Town be given the Gentlemen of the late Houſe, for their Firmneſs in defending the Liberties of the People.

We hear that his Majeſty's Ship the Launceſton, of 40 Guns, is ſhortly expected here from Halifax.

AUGUST 1. From the public prints and private letters brought by Captain Prince from London, we gather, that the nation is in the utmoſt confuſion from various cauſes and effects—No troops talked of for America—That the K— had declined meeting the P——t in perſon, which has occaſioned ſevere reflections on thoſe m——rs, who have brought things to ſuch a paſs, that it was believed if there ſhould be a general muſter of the troops, they would decline firing upon the citizens, the conſequences of which are obvious—That L—— was thought to be a penſioner of France, which court it is ſaid are hereby to have ſent a nobleman to America by way of Martinico in the time of the ſtamp-act, that they might receive from him the firſt notice of an open quarrel—That ſome great ones in love of luis d'ors, had ſo infatuated many of the people of England in relation to the new regulations, that nothing leſs than our declining to purchaſe any of their manufactures will ſerve to open their eyes, and ſave the nation and colonies from the impending ruin.—That ſome among ourſelves, particularly G—— B——, had been conſtantly projecting and forwarding thoſe deſtructive meaſures; that he had groſly miſrepreſented matters and things, and abuſed this people—That L—d H——b had intimated that he had been miſinformed—That America had ſtill very powerful advocates, who have written with freedom againſt taxing us, and expreſſed their hopes that thoſe governments and individuals would continue to act with judgment and ſpirit, which under providence muſt inſure us a freedom from tyranny and ſlavery, and cauſe that the evil doings of ſome avaricious wretches ſhall fall upon their own pates.

AUGUST 8. We hear that the week before laſt was finiſhed, by order and for the uſe of the Gentlemen belonging to the Inſurance-Office kept by Nathaniel Barber, at the north end, an elegant ſilver BOWL, weighing forty-five ounces, and holding forty-five gills. On one ſide is engraved within a handſome border——To the memory of the glorious NINETY TWO members of the honourable houſe of REPRESENTATIVES of the MASSACHUSETTS-BAY, who, undaunted by the inſolent menaces of villains in power, and out of a ſtrict regard to conſcience and the LIBERTIES of their conſtituents, on the 30th of June, 1768, VOTED NOT TO RESCIND. Over which is the cap of liberty in an oaken crown. On the other ſide, in a circle adorned with flowers, &c. is No. 45. WILKES AND LIBERTY, under which is general warrants torn to pieces. On the top of the cap of liberty, and but of each ſide, is a ſtandard, on one is MAGNA CHARTA, the other BILL OF RIGHTS. On Monday evening laſt, the gentlemen belonging to the office made a genteel entertainment, and invited a number of gentlemen of diſtinction in the town, when 45 loyal toaſts were drank, and the whole concluded with a new ſong, the chorus of which is, In freedom we're born, and in freedom we'll live, &c.

Tueſday night laſt the town was very agreeably ſerenaded by a band of vocal and inſtrumental muſic, in which performance, the capital piece was the celebrated new liberty ſong, ſo juſtly admired thro' all North-America. Chorus. In freedom we're born, &c.

PROVIDENCE, (Rhode-Iſland) JULY 23.

The Hon. Thomas Cuſhing, Eſq; Speaker of the late Houſe of Repreſentatives of the Maſſachuſetts Bay, has received Letters from ſeveral of the Members, who were neceſſarily abſent when the late important Matter was agitated, expreſſing their deep Concern in not having had an Opportunity to join with their reſpectable Brethren, in firmly adhering to the Reſolution which they were commanded to reſcind; but declaring that they perfectly agreed in Sentiment with the Ninety-two, and ſhould have thought themſelves highly honoured in bearing a public Teſtimony againſt the Requiſition.

NEWPORT, (Rhode-Iſland) JULY 25.

Laſt Monday, the Tower of Trinity-Church, in this Town, was raiſed by 45 Sons of Liberty, who, we are told, the enſuing Evening, ſupped at Mr. John Lawton's, on 45 different Diſhes. The ſame Evening a conſiderable Number of Gentlemen met at Mr. Ichabod Potter's, where they drank many loyal Healths, and concluded with toaſting the Maſſachuſetts Ninety-two Anti-Reſcinders.

AUGUST 1. Laſt Tueſday arrived here the Ship Agamemnon, Capt. Langdon, loaded with ſugar, &c. She was bound from Monſerrat for London, but ſpringing a leak, was obliged to put into this port, in order to be unloaded and repaired.

NEW-YORK, JULY 21.

Extract of a Letter from Niagara, dated July 1, 1768.

"Two Days ago the famous Major Rogers arrived here, and the unfortunate Woman his Wife. He is to remain here till further Orders, and I believe to be tried here; but ſhe goes down very ſoon; ſhe is really much to be pitied, but I believe him to be a great Raſcal."

We are informed by the Way of Quebec, That Rogers's Deſign was, after having taken and plundered Detroit, and the Illinois, and carried the Spoils to his Accomplice Captain Hopkins, at New-Orleans, to have returned himſelf, and fallen upon New-England and Carolina, which he looked upon to be two of our richeſt Provinces.—This Deſign he intended to have executed laſt Spring, but was prevented by want of Money, and other Conveniences.

Extract of a Letter from Penſacola, June 10, 1768.

"Mr. James, and ſeveral other Virginians, have been here to look at our Lands: He went up the River in our Bay, with Intention to croſs the Country towards the Miſſiſippi, if he did not find Land nearer to his Satisfaction; however a few Leagues above the Mouth of our River he found the Land ſuch as he wanted, ſo went no further, but has applied, together with five other conſiderable Gentlemen of Virginia, for a large Tract, obliging themſelves to bring with them ten Families, and 100 Slaves, together with a large Quantity of Cattle. There are alſo ſeveral Virginians ſettling on the Banks of the Miſſiſippi, where the Lands are as good as any in the Univerſe. We expect a conſiderable Number of new Settlers from London. Some Days ago a Spaniſh Schooner arrived here from Campeachy, and ſeveral others are expected."

AUGUST 1. Wedneſday Night died at his houſe in this city, of a lingering illneſs (which had for ſome time rendered him incapable of buſineſs) Mr. William Weyman, for many years paſt a printer of note in this city.

Extract of a letter from a correſpondent in Philadelphia.

"By an expreſs, I have an account, that a chief of the ſavages of the Chipaway nation, which is the moſt numerous of all thoſe about the lakes, was come to Detroit, with ſeveral others, and that they were all to go forward by the way of Niagara, to Sir William Johnſon's, upon ſome very important concern, which they would not communicate to any body there, but it was conjectured to be about ſome warlike preparations, and the murders that were lately committed by ſome at St. Joſeph's, of another nation: If theſe ſavages are true to us, it will prove a great ſafety to the traders, in caſe our Miſſiſippi friends go on a plotting to make the reſt riſe againſt us, as they have done. It is now, I believe certain, that the trade with the ſavages is to be managed by the colonies at their own charge and riſk, and that Sir William Johnſon has got directions from England for treaties, and all other buſineſs with them. I hope always for the beſt, but I believe it will be troubleſome work for the trading colonies, who I wiſh had a little more money before they were put to any more expence."

Since our laſt arrived here, by the way of Maryland, a gentleman from New-Orleans, which place he left the 11th of June, and informs, that Captain Walker of New York was there, and that he met Captain Moore, in a brig of the the ſame place, going up the river as he came down; that the government at New-Orleans was ſtill divided between the French and Spaniards; that the money to pay the Spaniſh troops, which had been long expected, was not arrived, on which account trade was dull, there being but little caſh left among them. On his paſſage to Maryland, the 26th of June, near the iſland of Tortuga, they took up a ſhip's long boat, with only one man in it, who ſaid he lately belonged to a ſhip owned in Briſtol, bound from the Bay of Honduras for Leghorn, which was caſt away about three months before on Cuba; that the maſter and all the people ſet off in the yawl and left him with the long boat behind; that he had ſince been turtling, but being tired of that employment, was going for Carolina; it is ſuppoſed that he had either murdered or left behind on ſome of the Keys his Spaniſh companions, as their things were in the boat, with a quantity of water and proviſions, but it is uncertain, as he would not give any account of them.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in New-York, dated the 14th Inſtant.

"The late brave and virtuous behaviour of the Maſſachuſetts Aſſembly, in the ſacred cauſe of liberty and their country, has given general ſatisfaction in this and all the Eaſtern colonies, and the news was received with as evident tokens of joy as were manifeſted on the fall of Louiſbourg or the conqueſt of Canada. May the ſame noble zeal ſpread itſelf from town to town, and colony to colony, till we become united as one man in this glorious reſolution, Never to ſurrender our inherent Rights and Privileges.——"The illuſtrious Ninety-two" is now a Toaſt in all companies."

Extract of a Letter from Dominico, June 25, 1768.

"In the Courſe of the preſent Month we have been favoured with a Viſit of our Chief Governor General Melville, and what rendered his Company more agreeable, he forwarded and put the finiſhing Hand to the Bill for holding Courts in this Iſland, which had been delayed many Months by the Council. Alſo during his Excellency's Stay arrived here our new Lieutenant-Governor, Col. Young, in whom we flatter ourſelves we have a Gentleman, formed to reduce that Violence of Party which has ſo long perplexed this Place.—Lately died here, Major St. George; as alſo Col. Parrey, who lately arrived from England.

"Two Brigs from South-Carolina to this Place, have had one 50, the other 55 Days Paſſage.—Proviſions, as well Iriſh as from North-America, are extremely plenty; and the French actually bring fine Flour from Gaudaloupe to us; and it is not to be wondered at that Philadelphia Soap will not ſell in the Weſt-Indies, when the French introduce good Caſtile Soap for 70l. per Cwt.—Two ſmall Veſſels were lately confiſcated here; one from Antigua, for importing Loaf Sugar;

this other for importing Gin from St. Euſtatia.—There are now 52 Sail of Veſſels in our Road, near 20 of which are taking in Sugars, and are from 300 to 200 Tons. It is ſaid Sugars are lower by 15 per Cent. this Year than laſt, owing to the great Crop in Guadaloupe; and the Quantity of Cotton at Market is immenſe."

On Sunday laſt Captain Carver, formerly of the New-England Troops, arrived here from Fort Pitt, and informs us, that the Garriſon were very healthy about a Fortnight ago. This Gentleman has been employed ſeveral Years as a Draughtſman, and has been exploring the Heads of the Miſſiſippi, the Sciato, and Lake Superior, in which Service he has given great Satisfaction, having made ſeveral Diſcoveries of conſiderable Utility. He went 1500 Miles to the Weſtward of Michillimackinac, and travelled 1100 Miles on Lake Superior, Part of the Time without any other Company, than a Frenchman and an Iroquois Indian: Captain Carver met Colonel Wilkins, and his Troops, about 30 Miles on this Side Fort Pitt.

AUGUST 4. By Letters from Fort Pitt, we learn that Colonel Wilkins with the 18th, or Royal Iriſh regiment, embarked at that place the 29th of July, to go down the river for the Illinois.

We learn that the 38th regiment, from the Illinois, were at Carliſle laſt Friday, on their way to this city.

SOUTH-CAROLINA.

By the Honourable WILLIAM BULL, Eſq; Lieutenant-Governor and Commander in Chief in and over his Majeſty's ſaid Province.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS the Term of the Continuance of the preſent General Aſſembly of this Province, which now ſtands prorogued to the Thirteenth inſtant, will expire in a few Days: And whereas it is neceſſary for the Service of his Majeſty, and for the Peace and Welfare of this Province, that a General Aſſembly ſhould be conveened; I DO THEREFORE to that End think fit to iſſue this my Proclamation, diſſolving the preſent General Aſſembly, and the ſaid General Aſſembly is hereby accordingly diſſolved.

GIVEN under my Hand and the Great Seal of this his Majeſty's ſaid Province at Charles-Town, this Eighth Day of September, Anno Domini 1768, and in the Eighth Year of his Majeſty's Reign.

WILLIAM BULL.

By his Honour's Command,
THOMAS SKOTTOWE, Secr.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

CHARLES-TOWN, SEPTEMBER 13.

THE Beginning of laſt Month his Excellency the Right Honourable Lord Charles-Greville Montagu, our Governor, with his Lady, paſſed through the Town of Providence, in Rhode-Iſland, from Boſton, in their Return to the Southward.

We hear that new Writs will be iſſued this Week, for electing the Members of the Honourable the Commons Houſe of Aſſembly of this Province.

Dr. Barnet Wait, went Paſſenger alſo in Captain O'Bear, mentioned in our laſt to have ſailed for Salem.

Wedneſday laſt put in here, the Sloop Nancy, Benjamin Appleton, Maſter, blown off the Coaſt of North-Carolina.

On Thurſday George Mills, Eſq; Inſpector-General of the Cuſtoms, having finiſhed his Buſineſs here and at George-Town, ſet out for Beaufort, and we hear intends to make the Tour of Georgia, Eaſt-Florida, &c.

Friday put in here, the Snow Neuva-Fortuna, Jayne Vidall, Maſter, from St. Auguſtine for Gibraltar, having met with a Gale of Wind off Bermuda, by which ſhe received conſiderable Damage.

The Sloop Renah, Frederick Dorſey, Maſter, from Jamaica, of and for Edenton, in North-Carolina, was loſt on the South Side of Cuba, on the firſt of June laſt. The Maſter arrived here on the firſt Inſtant, in the Ship Apollo, William Gelſton, Maſter, from Dominico; and has publiſhed a full and particular Narrative of the Loſs of the ſaid Sloop, together with the many and ſevere Hardſhips he and his People underwent, &c.

Extract of a Letter from Camden, dated September 6, 1768.

"The Regulators have fixed upon the 5th of October to have a Meeting here, to draw up a Liſt of their Grievances, in order to be laid before the new Aſſembly; near Three Thouſand of them are to rendezvous on the 10th at Eutaw, and then to proceed to Charles-Town, in order to be redreſſed.

"The Regulators from the Congaree, Broad and Saluda Rivers, are not to proceed to Town, unleſs ſent for by their Brethren; but a Number of them are to be ready in caſe they ſhould be wanted; they have no Intention of injuring any Perſon in Town, deſiring only Proviſion and Quarters till their Complaints are heard, and their Rights to County Courts, and other Privileges, are ſecured to them.

"The Confuſion in North-Carolina is as great as in this Province, the People in Orange County will pay no Taxes, till a late Act of Aſſembly is repealed, granting an enormous Sum of Money for building a Governor's Houſe, and againſt a popular Gentleman, the Contriver of that Act; at the ſame Time they Labour under a Pole-Tax of Eleven Shillings Proclamation Money, and their Paper Currency is moſtly ſunk, and very little Specie amongſt them, and the little they have will ſoon be gone, by the Operation of ſome late Acts of Parliament, laying Duties on Paper, Glaſs, &c. The Governor has draſted Two Thouſand Men from Mecklenburg and Dobbs's County, who are to have Two Shillings Proc. per Day, and Eight Pence for Proviſions; they are to march the 12th Inſtant, from the Town of Mecklenburg, in order to over-awe the People in Orange County, who, in Imitation of our Province, alſo call themſelves Regulators. Two of the Chiefs concerned are ſecured, but 'tis thought they will be releaſed before they can be tried, as the People in general (even thoſe going againſt them) complain of this Act as a great Greivance."

Yeſterday Afternoon Capt. Hampton, in a Sloop belonging to New-York, arrived here from Penſacola, in whom came Paſſengers Mr. Benjamin Ward, of this Town, and Mr. Crook of Georgia.

The ſame Time Captain Diamond arrived here from St. Auguſtine, who informs us, That about 250 of Dr. Turnbull's Settlers had lately ſeized upon his Store at the Muſketoes, as alſo the Schooner Ballmer, Evan Stokes, Maſter, belonging here, who had carried there about 100 of them from St. Auguſtine, with Intention to go off in her to the Havana, as they had loaded her with the Goods which were in the Store; but an Expreſs being diſpatched to Governor Grant, he ſent off a Party of Soldiers, which arrived there juſt Time enough to fruſtrate their Deſigns, and to recover the Goods and Schooner.—Many of thoſe People appear to be diſſatisfied with their preſent Settlement, and want much to be in their own Country again.

"Laſt Week Salloue or the Young Warrior of Eſtatoe, "Chief of the Lower Cherokee Towns, arrived here with "Alexander Cameron, Eſq; Commiſſary for that Nation, "on a Viſit to the Superintendant, to be informed of the "Reaſons for withdrawing the Garriſon from Fort Prince-"George, and other Matters of Importance to the Indians, "who, it ſeems, were not a little alarmed by that ſudden "and unexpected Meaſure. He is returned to his own "Country much better ſatisfied than when he arrived.

"The Cherokee Indians have had no Account of Attakullakulla and thoſe with him, ſince they were at Pittſburgh, concluding the Treaty with the Delawares and "Shawaneſe, and begin to be in Doubt about his Safety, "coming through ſo many hoſtile Tribes." Sept. 9, 1768.
